Mass Media

Modern world is full of information. Mass media serve to inform people about current events. We can't imagine our life without mass media which consist of press, radio, television and the Internet.

TV keeps people informed of different events, it also gives us wonderful possibilities for education. We can choose any programme according to our interests, mood and needs. There is a great amount of channels which are specialized in various spheres.

It can be the sphere of politics, news, sports, animals, feature films, art, talk-shows, cartoons, educational programmes, and many others.

It is well-known that television may turn to be harmful for our health. Spending too much time in front of a TV screen may affect our eyesight badly.

Press is considered to be a classic form of mass media. It includes newspapers, magazines, brochures and all other printed publications.

Radio is a popular means of media, especially when travelling or driving.

The Internet is the newest kind of mass media. It has become the most popular one. The Internet is very helpful, because it's a huge database of knowledge. Sitting in front of a computer, clicking a mouse, you can shop, download many interesting films, books, read news about the subject which is interesting for you, play computer games with other players, chat and send mails to your friends. But everybody knows that the Internet can be very harmful for our health. That is why it should have reasonable limits.
